

Dulles Weaker As Kin Gather

By the Associated Press
John Foster Dulles is reportedly growing weaker.

The 71-year-old former Secretary of State contracted pneumonia a week ago after weeks of treatment for cancer that has spread through his body. He has been a patient at Walter Reed Hospital here since February 12, except for a brief rest in Florida.

Dulles Gives His Papers to Princeton Library. Page A-8.

The State Department, which reported a further decline in his condition Friday, said yesterday there was no further change.

Four members of the family who live elsewhere are in the city. They are two sons, Avery, a Jesuit priest, who has been studying at the Vatican, and John, an engineer in Mexico City; a daughter, Mrs. Robert H. L. New York City, and a son, Mrs. Margaret Edwards Iye, N.Y.

Other members of the family are Mrs. Dulles, who is a teacher, Allen, head of the National Intelligence Service, and Dr. Eleanor, State Department specialist.

CPYRGHT.